

A RUSH HOUR DISTRIBUTED RELEASE

Remember when techno music could stir your emotions and connect with you on a deep cerebral level? Frankfurt's Arne Weinberg does exactly this with his Matrix label debut e.p. "A True Story". This brilliant release follows in the footsteps of legendary techno composers Kenny Larkin and Dan Curtain, as well as the softer side of Jeff Mills. Weinberg lovingly composed this gripping sound track of organic electronic music that will appeal to everyone who enjoys soul-moving attributes in the music they enjoy. "A True Story" is a true classic.

Detroit's Sean Deason is known around the world for both his beautifully arousing electronic music compositions, as well as the honorable talent he embraces in making some the hottest dance floor techno anthems. In the first installment of the "Elements" series, Deason stylishly fuses graceful, elegant electronica with tight-groovin' techno into one e.p. This classic Detroit techno release, from one of the masters of the genre, will appeal to fans of Carl Craig, Kenny Larkin, and Derrick May. The track "Neptunium" will drive the dance floor into a frenzy with it's hard UR-like bass line and pounding rhythms, while "Xenon" is the perfect fusion of Detroit Techno and House. A true Mr. Fingers meets Derrick May experience.

About the label:

Detroit techno label, Matrix, was founded by Sean Deason in 1993. The Matrix label gained worldwide recognition not only for the numerous releases by Mr. Deason himself, but also by serving as a launching pad for the careers of many highly regarded and well known names in the current techno arena including Claude Young, Stewart Walker, Convexion, Punisher, Psykofuk and Morgan Geist. Matrix has also released music by established artists including Dan Bell, Kenny Larkin, Deep Chord, Will Webb and Alan Oldham. Matrix records continues it's long tradition of discovering and releasing cutting edge Detroit techno, as well as spine-tingling international electronic sonatas by both the established and up and coming artists from across the globe.
